

“War’s Hell!”

The Battle of Mametz Wood in Art

The National Museum & Galleries of Wales
Cardiff - 10 April - 4 September 2016

Visual and audio films that I directed and edited for the theatre production of Mametz are included in the centenary exhibition to commemorate Mametz at the National Museum of Wales. This includes an 8 minute film (above) of Rhys Isaac-Jones (as David Jones) reciting a segment of In Parenthesis. Secondly two short documentary films (Wood & Stone - left) I made on the initial research trips to the wood with writer Owen Sheers.
