

Thursday 6 July 2023

08:40	Arrival and Registration
09:20	AEME Forum 2023 Welcome Adrian Bossey and Clair Greenaway BG019
09:30	The ongoing opportunities and challenges for Events Management education Glenn Bowdin and Tim Brown BG019
10:15	Morning Break
10:45	Theme 1 - The Events Education Perspective
11:25	Embedding industry specific EDI in Events Management education Dan Woodason BG012&013	Articulating the Changemaker campus ethos Claire Drakeley and Ivna Reic BG133
11:35	Transition
11:45	Community events and critical pedagogy - what does Responsible Events Management Education look like? Joanna Goodey BG012&013	Event studies and emotions in learning Fotios Vasileiou BG133
12:15	Transition
12:25	AEME Special Interest Groups Insights Atrium	Embedding Events Management technology in the curriculum Mark Norman, OnePlan BG003
13:05	Exploring AEME Special Interest Groups Interactive Networking Session and Lunch Atrium
	Theme 2 - Industry Insights
14:00	Reforming event medical standards and the relationship with event management education Ashley Garlick BG012&013	Maintaining safe spaces for marginalised communities - how academic research can support industry Dan Baxter and Claire Leer BG133
14:40	Transition
14:50	Is a new paradigm of "liveness 4.0" required to consider haptic technologies designed to increase accessibility for people who are Deaf or disabled at music festivals? Adrian Bossey BG012&013	Going alone: solo eventgoers experience of UK music events Alyssa Brown BG143
15:30	Afternoon Tea
16:00	Developing research on event sustainability and social inclusion for a host city Catherine Parker BG012&013	Issues of sustainability: uncovering links between poverty and festival provision Mary Beth Gouthro and Karen Davies BG133
16:40	Transition
	Theme 3 - Evolving Curriculum Content in Events Management
16:50	Multiplicity in events - towards a new model of events in practice Tim Brown BG012&013	Communities of practice in local events: lessons from post-Covid recovery Dan Baxter, Nick Davies and Lindsay Robbins BG133
17:30	Finish
19:30	Celebratory Dinner @ Llanthony Secunda Priory

Friday 7 July 2023

09:00	Arrival and Registration
09:15	Association for Events Management Education Annual General Meeting BG133
10:15	Morning Break
10:45	Welcome Adrian Bossey and Clair Greenaway BG019
10:55	Innovation in access and inclusion: an industry perspective Andrew Lansley BG019
11:40	Transition
11:50	Supporting inclusion in the events Industry Attitude Is Everything, Institute of Event Management, National Outdoor Event Association, Association of British Professional Conference Organisers BG019
12:30	Exploring EDI with membership and accreditation organisations Interactive Networking Session and Lunch Atrium
	Theme 4 - Perception, Representation and Inclusion
13:30	How is wellbeing currently positioned in UK wellbeing festivals? A qualitatively framed content analysis Laura Nelson BG012&amp;013	Community participation and attitudinal change in community events Mandy Curtis and Adam Jones BG133
14:10	Transition
14:20	The representations of people with disabilities in the narrative of Olympic Games Libby Carter and Shauna Kearney BG012&amp;013	Exploring the perceptions of gender and career development for women in events Natalie Haynes and Charlotte Rowley BG133
15:00	Afternoon Tea and Closing Remarks Adrian Bossey and Clair Greenaway Atrium
15:30	Finish	